IRISH UNIVERSITIES ACT, 1908.

A STATUTE

FOR

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, CORK.

WHEREAS His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh was graciously pleased in pursuance of the provisions of the Irish Universities Act, 1908, to constitute and found a new University having its seat in Dublin, and to direct that the said University should bear the name of the National University of Ireland.

AND WHEREAS by sub-section (3) of section 2 of the said Act, Queen's College, Cork, the name of which his said late Majesty was graciously pleased, in pursuance of the said sub-section, to alter to University College, Cork, is a constituent College of the said University.

AND WHEREAS by section 4 of the said Act the Statutes for the general government of the constituent Colleges of the said University were directed to be made in the first instance by the Dublin Commissioners appointed under the said Act, and after the powers of the said Dublin Commissioners determined, by the governing bodies of the said constituent Colleges.

AND WHEREAS the said Dublin Commissioners under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, duly made a Statute for University College, Cork (to be cited as Statute I. of University College, Cork) given under their Common Seal, bearing date the 15th day of April, 1911.

AND WHEREAS the powers of the said Dublin Commissioners determined on the 31st day of July, 1911.

AND WHEREAS We, the Governing Body of University College, Cork, did on the 10th day of December, 1915, by resolution, provisionally adopt the Statute (to be cited as Statute VI. of University College, Cork), set out in the Schedule hereof as amended.

AND WHEREAS a copy of said Statute was communicated on the 16th day of December, 1915, to the Academic Council of the said College.

AND WHEREAS We, the said Governing Body, have considered any representations on the subject of said proposed Statute, made to us by the said Academic Council, within two months from the said 16th day of December, 1915, and have by a resolution adopted at our Meeting held this 9th day of February, 1916, by a majority of the Members of the said Governing Body now holding office, confirmed the resolution to make the said Statute with certain amendments.

AND WHEREAS a copy of the said Statute has, at least seven days before the said 9th day of February, 1916, been sent to each Member of the Governing Body, to the Registrar of the National University of Ireland, and also to the Secretary of University College, Dublin, and to the Secretary of University College, Galway.

Now We, THE GOVERNING BODY OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, CORK, under and by virtue of the powers in that behalf conferred on us by the said Act, Do by this present instrument under the Seal of University College, Cork, make the Statute contained in the Schedule hereof for the general government of the said College.

Given under the Common Seal of University College, Cork, this 10th day of February, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixteen.

Present when the Common Seal of University College, Cork, was affixed.

(Signed), BERTRAM C. A. WINDLE, President.

[L.S.] (Signed), P. J. MERRIMAN, Member of Governing Body.

(Signed), JOSEPH DOWNEY, Secretary.

SCHEDULE.

STATUTE VI.

CHAPTER I.

1. Clause 1 (2) of Statute IV. University College, Cork, is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof there is hereby substituted the Section following:—

There shall be the following Lectureships in the College:—

In Ancient Classics, in History or Education, in Modern Irish, in Materia Medica, in Mental Diseases, in Architecture, in Electrical Technology, in Accounting, in Spanish, in Dental Surgery, in Dental Mechanics, in Veterinary Hygiene:

Provided that during the tenure of office of the present Professor of Materia Medica there shall be a Professorship of Materia Medica, and the Professor of Therapeutics and the Lectureship in Materia Medica shall remain in abeyance. On the occurrence of the first vacancy in the Professorship of Materia Medica there shall be no longer a Professorship of Materia Medica, but there shall be a Professorship of Therapeutics and a Lectureship in Materia Medica.

2. Cap. XVI., Statute I., is hereby revoked as from the 30th September, 1916, so far as concerns payment of £50 to the Lecturer in Architecture.

Clause 4 of Statute V. is hereby revoked as from the 30th September, 1916, so far as concerns payment of £10 to the Lecturer in Veterinary Hygiene.

Cap. I., Statute II., is hereby revoked as from the 31st March, 1916, so far as concerns the payment of £150 to the Professors of Philosophy, of German, and of Methods of Education.

3. The Stipend of the Professorship of Philosophy shall be £300 per annum, as from the 1st April, 1916.

The Stipend of the Professorship of Methods of Education shall be £250 per annum, as from the 1st April, 1916.

The Stipend of the Professorship of German shall be £250 per annum, as from the 1st April, 1916.

The Holders of the Professorships of Methods of Education and of German shall be deemed to be Full-time Professors within the meaning of Statute I. of University College, Cork.

The Lecturers in Architecture, Veterinary Hygiene, and Spanish shall, as from 1st October, 1916, receive a sum to be paid by the College equivalent to the fees paid by students for their several courses, but shall receive no further sum for examining University students:

PROVIDED that it shall be lawful for the Governing Body, in the event of the remuneration thus provided appearing to them to be inadequate, to supplement the fees by such sum as may seem desirable to them.

4. This Statute shall be construed with and as part of the said Statutes I. to V. of University College, Cork, and may be cited as Statute VI. of University College, Cork, or Stat. VI., Univ. Coll., Cork.

5. This Statute shall come into operation on the 10th day of February, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixteen.

Present when the Common Seal of University College, Cork, was affixed.

(Signed), BERTRAM C. A. WINDLE, President.

[L.S.] (Signed), P. J. MERRIMAN, Member of Governing Body.
